About Dave's Hot Chicken

Dave's Hot Chicken, started by chef Dave Kopushyan in an East Hollywood parking lot with 3 friends, has quickly become one of the hottest new brands in the QSR segment. Named #1 in the Top 100 Movers and Shakers by Fast Casual Magazine, their fiery brand of chicken tenders and sliders has been featured in Forbes, NJ Biz, Entrepreneur, National Restaurant News, People, Business Insider magazines and across social media. The food has garnered rave reviews - their colorful graphics and store vibe have been noted for their "cool factor," especially among younger Millennials and Gen-Z consumers. Celebrity investors include former First Lady of California Maria Shriver, actor Samuel L. Jackson, former NFL player Michael Strahan and singer Drake. The food is Halal certified.
